DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 15-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Johnson et al 6424804 in view of Osada et al 5569350

Johnson et al discloses system having a mounting structure 32, 18 within a body and doors 51. The system has a platform 14 where a camera/sensor 12 is mounted, linear guide 24 that is engaged by the platform that is a linear structure disposed in parallel to the linear movement path of the platform, and mechanism 30, 31 for moving the platform. The camera 12 is directly attached to the platform 14 as shown in figure 6. The linear guide is connected to the mounting structure at a first end and to the platform at the second end. The linear guide is engaged by an annular engagement structure 26 that is connected to the platform and to stabilize the platform in an atmosphere. Please note that "an atmosphere" is broad in that it can be anywhere the platform is located. This can be at sea level to 20000 feet. The mounting structure is inside the body and limits intrusion into the body. Johnson et al is silent on the platform being engaged to a threaded screw. However, Osada et al teaches that a mechanism that utilizes a threaded screw 17 that engages the platform 8, 26 is well known in the art. Plus, Osada et al teaches a motor 18 that is used to actuate the threaded screw is well known (see figure 7).

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to have used a motor control threaded screw that engages the platform of Johnson et al as taught by Osada et al as a substitution of parts.

As for the mechanism that is electrically, hydraulically, magnetically, pneumatically, linear motion screw, or clutch and brake driven, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to have used any mechanism that is needed to drive the platform as a mere substitution of parts. The applicant has not disclosed the criticality of different mechanisms.

Figure 1 of Johnson shows the camera in a fully extended position and in the "atmosphere". An atmosphere is the region of space where air surrounds the Earth. Hence this meets what is claimed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 15-36 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
